MISS CULPETZER'S PRETTY LAWN PARTY

Many People on Away, Several Return and Numerous Events Appropriate to the Season

The very considerable remnant of society tunity last week to lift up its head suce chiefly concern the "younger set"-so called a flood of youths and maidens upon their individual homes. These find means of which inderstands all exigencies of climate. A very pretty lawn party was given last And they are not infrequently aided and abstract by their elders, who display the uthous averaging to their guest, Miss Lillian Oberfelder of Sidney, Neb., who is most sympathy for the aims of the youngdurs and a drawe to assist them in all their laudable undertakings-combined in a good many cases with an enjoyment, still fresh and keen in spite of the lapse of years, of liberally remembered every week by those who have or can get flowers for the sick and oppressed, still remains outside the province of many kindly disposed people, who either do not know, or are prone to forget, its claims upon public attention. The summer is pre-eminently its time of activity and the garden flowers furnish far more of material than the bothouse growths, although all kinds of flowers are Chankfully received and conscientionally distributed among the hospitals and the homes of the poor and suffering. Distributions are made on the Thursday of each week, and, owing to the perichable nature of the cut flowers | Fairmount park Council Bluffs, on Wednez-it is advisable that they be handed in on day evening. The journey was made by speit is advocable that they be handed in on that day or the day before.
